

You've Got Me Thinking

Jackie Lomax

You sure don't have a lot
But you use what you got
And you got thinking about it
You got me thinking
I just ain't sure that I will

What I see in your face
This ain't the time or the place
But you got me thinking about it
You got me thinking
I just ain't sure that I will

Baby, you're sure in for a big surprise
If I can believe what I see in your eyes

You may not know what to do
But I'm going to give you a clue
Cause you got thinking
You got me thinking

And if I can believe what I see in your eyes'

You may not know what to do
But I'm going to give you a clue
You got me thinking
You got me thinking about it
I just ain't sure that I will

You know you got me thinking
Something's on my mind

Thinking, thinking, thinking
