

Live What You Say

Jacob Latimore

Only if you live what you say
We wouldn't be arguing every day
Only if you live what you say
Wouldn't have to point the blame my way
Only if you live what you say
Things would be easier, baby
Only if you live what you say
We would still be more than friends, baby

Was it worth it?
Was it worth it? Tell me, girl
Was it worth it? Yeah
Was it worth it?
Was it worth it? Baby, tell me now

Actions speak louder than words
So you gotta show me something
You say you don't believe what you've heard
I guess my half just don't mean nothing
If you really want me, you should say it now (Say it now)
'Cause I don't even say shit when you hanging out (Hanging out)
And I don't even question who you hang around
So what you complaining 'bout?
'Cause I kept it one hunnid (One hunnid, one hunnid)
And you only gave half (Gave half, gave half)
And now all of a sudden (A sudden, a sudden)
You don't know how to act
I think we should go our separate ways

Only if you live what you say (Oh)
We wouldn't be arguing every day (Day)
Only if you live what you say (Oh, oh)
Wouldn't have to point the blame my way
Only if you live what you say
Things would be easier, baby (Oh, oh, yeah)
Only if you live what you say (Say)
We would still be more than friends, baby

You say trust, but you don't really mean it when it comes to us (Us)
Always thinkin' I'm out here with someone (With someone)
Always hittin' me up for somethin' (Say, say, say)
Wouldn't have a problem if you was up on our love (Our love)
Only stand down 'til I go up (Go up)
Wish I could find your glow up (Oh)
But you say you not on that
You don't really care where we at (We at)
Tried to give you the bigger picture but you wanted to advertise (Oh)
Tried to listen but you talkin' 'bout the truth, it's in your eyes (Oh)
Only if you mean what you said, then things would be right (Oh, I-I)
Yeah, I wasn't perfect, but damn, I was invested (Oh)
There when you cried, my chest was where you slept (Oh)
Talked a good game but your actions don't reflect it (Yeah, yeah)

Only if you live what you say (Oh)
We wouldn't be arguing every day (Day)
Only if you live what you say (Oh, oh)
Wouldn't have to point the blame my way

Only if you live what you say
Things would be easier, baby (Oh, oh, yeah)
Only if you live what you say (Say)
We would still be more than friends, baby

Was it worth it?
Was it worth it? Tell me, girl
Was it worth it? Yeah
Was it worth it?
Was it worth it? Baby, tell me now
