

All My Fears

Jacobs Dream

Change comes like a blinking eye
Victims of the thief of time
Swimming in a sea of whys
Trade the dollar for your life

Feed the hunger deep inside
Empty never satisfied
In a world of black and white
I dream of color in the night
So jaded by the left and the right
So pray that I might see the light

All my fears
After all these years
All my fears
Fall upon me

Wrong road taken in the past
A momentary high that just won't last
Memories for so long suppressed
The painful truth, it haunts my soul
The truth I know deep inside
For too long now, I have denied

In a world of wrong and right
I dream of living another life
So tired of losing the fight
So I pray as I reach for the light
