

Reborn In Fire

Jacobs Dream

A broken child
Now a broken man
I'm a victim of my own pride again
So many choices made
So selfishly
It was never worth
All that it cost me
There was a time
I believed in you
You gave me a reason
A reason to live

I set my soul on fire
So many things I don't believe in
So much I cannot explain
I set my soul on fire
So many things I don't believe in

A broken home
Now a broken soul
They were victims of
My abusive sin
So many things I've done
So carelessly
It was never worth
All that it cost me

I set my soul on fire
So many things I can't take back
So many things I can't undo
I set my soul on fire
So many things I don't believe
So much more I can not explain

There was a time
I believed in you
You gave me a reason
A reason to live
You gave me eyes to see
When I was me

Make me reborn in fire
So many things you've done for me
So many ways I can't explain
Make me reborn in fire
Wash this wretched soul again
I throw myself before you now

Make me reborn in fire
Make me reborn
Reborn in fire
Make me reborn
