

Ready

Jagged Edge

I know I'm done cheating
I know I'm done creeping trynna get it out my life time to get myself right and I know some gon' be mad and some people gon' be sad but they will be alright
I think I done found my wife
I wont be the one whose 50 and alone
I'ma have my family by my side til I'm dead and gone
Somebody say alright alright alright alright
(Alright alright alright alright)
I'm sooo ready to start this love

Girl I never thought I'd say this
I think I'm ready to be in love
I think I'm tripping when I say this
I think I'm ready to be in love
I'm ready to ring you up (think I'm, think I'm, think I'm)
I'm ready to feel the love (think I'm, think I'm, think I'm)
I'm ready to be in love (think I'm)
Ready to be in love

Girl I know I'm done misleading
My karma took a beating
I can't go back and change things that was Baby starting here today
I'm changing all the ways
I'm racing fast forward to your love
I won't be the one who's miserable and alone
I won't be the one who; I won't be the one who
And I could sing this all life long as you are the song

Never thought I'd hear the words coming out of my mouth

Girl I never thought I'd say this
I think I'm ready to be in love
I think I'm tripping when I say this
I think I'm ready to be in love
I'm ready to ring you up (think I'm, think I'm, think I'm)
I'm ready to feel the love (think I'm, think I'm, think I'm)
I'm ready to be in love (think I'm)
Ready to be in love

When I say ready
I mean for real
Not like the other times in my life
