

Alone

Jai Waetford

Playing hot potato
With my phone
And I know I was wishing
You would (call me)
Thinking overtime
And you were on my mind
And I was feeling (lonely)

'Cause I know, I know
How the weekend goes
Take a little time
Then we go no clothes
I know
How the weekend goes
And I don't wanna be alone

We should ride into this
Even if faded
Take it slow
We won't try nothing crazy
Take you home
And lay you down
My baby
'Cause I don't wanna be alone
I don't wanna be alone

Guess the time was right
'Cause you are finally mine
And I don't wait for you
To call me
We've been fucking
Almost every day and night
And I am no longer
Getting lonely

'Cause I know
How the weekend goes
Take a little time
Then we go no clothes
I know
How the weekend goes
And I don't wanna be alone

We should ride into this
Even if faded
Take it slow
We won't try nothing crazy
Take you home
And lay you down
My baby
'Cause I don't wanna be alone
I don't wanna be alone

Waking up to the sunrise (yeah)
Looking back on the days we did
I'm not mad that I can't remember
I'm pretty sure there were things I said

Yeah, we can never go back
To how we were before (yeah)
And if you're down to stay
Then baby I'm yours

We should ride into this
Even if faded
Take it slow
We won't try nothing crazy
Take you home
And lay you down
My baby
'Cause I don't wanna be alone
I don't wanna be alone
