

Perfectly Imperfect

Jake Coco

Everything I say don't come out perfect
And I'm not always the man you want me to be
Baby all those fights i swear they're worth it
Everythings gonna work out one day you'll see

Cuz baby our love is sweeter than wine
And our love is stronger with time

Cuz I'm gonna be your lullabye
The one that you dream of every night
And I'm gonna be your perfect sunrise
The one that you wait for the rest of your life
Oh it's gonna be
Baby you and me

And maybe I can't paint your world in diamons
But I can color you beautiful with the words that I say
And mabye I can't always make you smile
But I catch your teardrops when your not okay

Cuz baby our love is sweeter than wine
And our love is stronger with time

Cuz I'm gonna be your lullabye
The one that you dream of every night
And I'm gonna be your perfect sunrise
The one that you wait for the rest of your life
Oh it's gonna be
Baby you and me

Cuz I'm gonna be your lullabye
The one that you dream of every night
And I'm gonna be your perfect sunrise
The one that you wait for the rest of your life
Oh it's gonna be
Oh it's gonna be
Yeah it's gonna be
Baby you and me
