

Song for Someone

Jake Coco

I could feel it in my bones, when she called me on the phone take a breathe and swallow hard, cause her bodies not alone.
who am I deciding who can live or die
it isn't right
it isn't right

Im so sorry all I ever said was goodbye take a walk to clear my mind, but you're with me all the time I'll never know what you would be and it tears me up inside Does life start with a soul or with a heart?

I'll never know
I'll never know

Im so sorry all I ever said was goodbye

So if you can hear me now, I'll do my best to make you proud I'm sure you're somewhere in the stars, So Id better sing this loud

Im so sorry all I ever said was goodbye
