

15 MINUTES

Jake Miller

I can't drive on Sunset Boulevard
I don't know what I'd do if you pulled up next to me
Would you stop and get out of your car?
Or just ignore me while you watch the light turn green

I can't go nowhere near your house
I'm scared to death you might come out, yeah-yeah
I wish we lived in different towns
So tell me, tell me, tell me how

How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?
Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me
How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?
Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me
Only 15 minutes away from me

I can't go to all my favorite bars, oh, no, no
You're probably there all tangled up with someone new
So I stay home, write songs on my guitar, yeah, yeah
About the girl I lost but still live so close to

I can't go nowhere near your house
I'm scared to death you might come out
I wish we lived in different towns
So tell me, tell me, tell me how

How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?
Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me
How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?
Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me
Only 15 minutes away from me
(15 minutes away)
Only 15 minutes away from me

Sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
I'm sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
Sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
I'm sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking

How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?
Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me
How am I supposed to sleep,
When you live right down the street?

Only 15 minutes
Only 15 minutes away from me

Sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
I'm sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
Sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking to your house
I'm sleepwalking, sleepwalking
Sleepwalking
