

Blame It On You

Jake Miller

Hey, are you awake?
It's 11: 30 in LA, I know it's late
You back in Florida and I miss your face (Miss your face)
I love your lips, I miss the way they taste
The way they taste, yeah, yeah
Hey, no I can't lie
It's Friday night, I might've drink too much, I'm kinda high
But my vision's never been so clear (Been so clear)
And I'm wishin' you were layin' naked here
Naked here, yeah, yeah

Can't stop fuckin' smilin' every time I hear your name
First thing that I think about the second I'm awake
Your perfume on my pillowcase, ain't slept in days
And my friends keep tellin' me I've changed
I'm not the same, and I

Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Do you blame it on me too?
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
I'm fucked up on your love
It's your fault, I blame it on you

Woah, I close my eyes
The things I do to you, inside my dirty mind
To hold me over 'til we're face to face babe (Babe)
I'm 'bout to fly your ass right to my place
Right to my place, yeah, yeah (Yeah, yeah)

Can't stop fuckin' smilin' every time I hear your name
First thing that I think about the second I'm awake
Your perfume on my pillowcase, ain't slept in days
And my friends keep tellin' me I've changed
I'm not the same, and I

Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Do you blame it on me too?
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
I'm fucked up on your love
It's your fault, I blame it on you

Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
Do you blame it on me too?
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
I'm fucked up on your love
It's your fault, I blame it on you

Can't stop fuckin' smilin' every time I hear your name

First thing that I think about the second I'm awake
Your perfume on my pillowcase, ain't slept in days
And my friends keep tellin' me I've changed
I'm not the same, and I

Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you (I blame it on you)
Blame it on, blame it on you
Do you blame it on me too?
Blame it on, blame it on you
Blame it on, blame it on you
I'm fucked up on your love
It's your fault, I blame it on you
