Lost in your eyes maybe you can come and find me
You must know some magic baby cause you hypnotize me
Well, I could be your Harry Potter you'll be my hermione
My eyes are glued to that supermodel body
Come and kick it with me I ain't talkin' bout karate
Hop up on my lap tell me are you nice or naughty
Or come up to my room I left your key down in the lobby
OOH!
Yeah, baby we can have some fun tonight
You got the glow, so hit the lights
They say your out of my league
And, yeah, they probably right
But if they are, well, I ain't goin' down without a fight
Ill admit it, girl, Im not too good at math
But accordin' to my calculations your my other half

Look, I dont need no mansion with no panoramic view
Screw the car, screw the money
You can't take all of that, too
Cause those are just all the small things, blink 182
Baby, after all its said and done, all I want is you
And I know you want me too girl its written on your face
If the myans were correct then we ain't got no time to waste
Now the party's dyin' down plus its gettin' kinda late
So how bout we take this party back, back to my estate
Ahhh

You got the glow, so hit the lights
They say your out of my league
And, yeah, they probably right
But if they are, well, I ain't goin' down without a fight
Hottest thing around, baby you got my vote

So if you'll let me, I'mma hit you like a high note
