

NIKES

Jake Miller

I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me
I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
All they do is bring back memories

Hey, what's up? It's been too long
I still feel like we gave up too soon
You packed up all your things and walked
But you left something in my bedroom

And you, you're treating me so cold
Like someone you don't know
And ooh, I can't just let you go
I thought I'd let you know

I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me
I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
All they do is bring back memories
No, I can't get you out of my, get you out of my head
I can't just walk away and erase the nights that we spent
When I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me

Wishing we could hit rewind, ah yeah
Before we said we needed some space
I wonder if I cross your mind
I should have left something at your place, yeah

'Cause you, you're treating me so cold
Like someone you don't know
And ooh, I can't just let you go (You go)
I thought I'd let you know

I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me
I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
All they do is bring back memories
No, I can't get you out of my
Get you out of my head (Out of my head)
I can't just walk away and erase the nights that we spent
When I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me

Even though I know you're gone
Something keeps me holding on
Even though I know you're gone (You're gone)
Something keeps me holding on

Yeah, I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
Right there in the corner, teasing me
I still got your Nikes laying in my closet
All they do is bring back memories
No, I can't get you out of my
Get you out of my head (Out of my head)
I can't just walk away, and face the nights that we spent
When I still got your Nikes laying in my closet

Right there in the corner, teasing me

Even though I know you're gone
(Even though you're gone, even though you're gone)
Something keeps me holding on
(I keep holding on, I keep holding on)
Even though I know you're gone
(Even though you're gone, even though you're gone)
Something keeps me holding on
(I keep holding on, I keep holding on)
