

Ross And Rachel

Jake Miller

Started out as friends, only friends
But I knew from that moment
That I was fallin' fast, fallin' fast
But you never noticed

I lived right down the hall
Like a fly on the wall
Knew you better than you knew yourself
Couldn't get you alone
So I'd sit by the phone
I put myself through hell
Could you even tell?

Thank god, I waited
Thank god that I waited cause my
Love never faded
I just needed patience
It was always you
Yeah, it was always you (oh yea yea yea)
Thank god, I waited
Thank god that I waited cause my
Love never faded
I just needed patience
It was always you
Yeah, it was always you (oh yea yea yea)

Remember when you slept at my place
We were kissin' and touchin'
Thought your mind had changed
But you woke up and said it was nothin'
We're nothin'

I lived right down the hall
Like a fly on the wall
Knew you better than you knew yourself
Couldn't get you alone
So I'd sit by the phone
I put myself through hell
Could you even tell?

Thank god, I waited
Thank god that I waited cause my
Love never faded
I just needed patience
It was always you
Yeah, it was always you (oh yea yea yea)
Thank god, I waited
Thank god that I waited cause my
Love never faded
I just needed patience
It was always you
Yeah, it was always you (oh yea yea yea)
