

Simple Life

Jake Miller

Ever since I was 18
I had this vision in my head
Thought maybe I could start a new life
Go become a pop star
I packed my shit and left
Yeah ever since I was 18
I wanted to be something more
I wanted fortune and the fame
And the world to know my name
But now I'm not so sure

Cause ever since you came into my life
You changed my mind
And all I wanna do
Is leave the world I know behind
Say goodbye
And run away with you

So can we find a private island
Fall in love in peace and quiet
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
Somewhere in a little cabin
Far away from all distractions
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
A simple life

Ever since I was 18
Feel like my heart has been at war
Thought I would look more like a star
If I went and brought a car
With some suicide doors (so stupid)
But now I'm far from 18
Maybe I'm just growing up
I used to want the type of life
You can't even go outside
But now that sounds like it sucks

So can we find a private island
Fall in love in peace and quiet
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
Somewhere in a little cabin
Far away from all distractions
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
A simple life

And all the things that I was after
Suddenly don't matter
When I look in your eyes

So can we find a private island
Fall in love in peace and quiet
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live

Somewhere in a little cabin
Far away from all distractions
Just you and I
I wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
A simple life

Ever since I was 18
I had this vision in my head
Thought maybe I could start a new life
Go become a pop star
I packed my shit and left
