

Finally Feel Good

James Arthur

I wanna wake up sober
See what the sunrise means to me
'Cause I've been getting colder
And nothing means anything
I wanna really hold ya
And feel the ground beneath my feet
'Cause when it's all all over
Don't wanna miss anything

I'm putting out cigarettes on my bed
Only friends gather up in my head
When you hit bottom, only place to go
Is up

When I found me
I was smiling
And through the crying
I finally feel good
When I broke free
From the old me
I was singing
I finally feel good

I was getting closer
But I was getting in my way
We're only getting older
I keep on making the same mistakes
Self-inflicted torture
It no longer gets me high
Finally I want to Follow my own lullabies

Trying to remember what my mother said
Middle finger up to my twisted head
When you hit bottom, only place to go
Is up

When I found me
I was smiling
And through the crying
I finally feel good
When I broke free
From the old me
I was singing
I finally feel good

Oh...
To be in my own skin
Finally feels like home, yeah
I keep telling myself
"You don't have to be alone"

When I found me
I was smiling
When I broke free

From the old me
I was singing

(I finally feel good, baby
Oh, I finally feel good
I finally feel good
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
