

Marine Parade (2013)

James Arthur

Queen Victoria

I've missed you so bad (It's such a long time)

Oh, the way we used to sing together

You'll never ever be replaced, no, no

And now the promenade seems such a lonely place since you left

Our little scene, oh

And the fisherman's choir used to sing so beautifully

Now they sing out of key, oh no

You left me broke

You broke my heart (It's such a long time)

You broke my heart

You broke my heart

Down at marine parade, oh

You left me broke (You left me broke)

You broke my heart (You broke my heart)

Down at marine parade

Remember Amber Street?

Oh, the trouble in the square scared you half to death (It's such a long time)

Oh, where is your bravery?

I could really use it, baby

And with you the view from the Albion made east from power bank s taste so much better then, yeah

And now I'm running up the alley, tripping, falling in too deep

Now maybe you're there waiting for me

Now that I'm broke

You broke my heart (It's such a long time)

Oh, you broke my heart

You broke my heart

Down at marine parade, mmm

You left me broke (Oh, you left me broke)

You broke my heart, oh

Down at marine parade
