

Make Me Better

James Blunt

You make me breakfast every morning
You made me sleep all through the night
You made me worry without any warning
Let me just lay here and drown in your eyes, dear

You made me sorry for this wasn't always
You made me hungry for your body babe
You made me run down hospital hallways
You gave me life, dear, and he's got your eyes

I've waited so long, baby, I did you wrong
Let's make up for the time we've wasted
You'd wait by the phone every time I was gone
But all alone...

You are everything I have never been
I want you to make me better
I've been wondering why you'd let me in
I want you to make me better

You made me stop and see for the moment
You made me laugh out loud, you did
You gave me memories like time is frozen
You gave me a child and he's got your smile

And I sang a song every night I was gone
'bout all the dreams I'm chasing
And I have been wrong but the things that I've done
But all alone...

You are everything I have never been
I want you to make me better
And I've been wondering why you'd let me in
I want you to make me better

Although that I've never read your mind
I figured it out on my own
I am so glad that I've caught you in time
Before I am left all alone (alone)

So you are everything I have never been
I want you to make me better
So please, my darling, take this wedding ring
I want you to make me better

And I've been wondering why you'd ever let me in
I want you to make me better
I want you to make me better
I want you to make me better□
