Save Yourself

James Morrison

I'm trying to change to make the best, for us But I'm just the same same as I ever was

Oh and if you stay with me
honestly it's what I want
But if you stay with me
I know I'll hurt you more

So won't you save, save yourself
by leaving me now
For someone else
if I'm crying out
don't listen to it It's only my heart
save yourself
it's only my heart
Oh no

So tell me I'm wrong
please won't you change, my mind This loves so intense sometimes it can lead, you blind

Oh and if you stay with me
honestly it's what I want
But if you stay with me
I know I'll hurt you more

by leaving me now
For someone else
if I'm crying out
don't listen to it It's only my heart
save yourself
It's only my heart
save yourself

And I don't want to let you go
But I know that it's the right thing to do baby
And I don't think I'm that strong to say goodbye
I don't wanna see you cry

So won't you save, save yourself
by leaving me now
For someone else
if I'm crying out
don't listen to it
save yourself
