Sweet Dreams

Jamestown Story

I want you, I need you, I love your personality Your bright eyes, resupply, my head knowing you're just like me ...

With everyday that passes by the more I come to realize you're everything I need

And everynight I lay in bed with all my thoughts still left uns aid, all night restless sleep, so sweet dreams...

You're in pain, he's to blame, I pull you up close to me Your eyes tear, I'm right here, pain goes away girl it will be alright...
