That Lonesome Song

Jamey Johnson

That mornin' sun made it's way Through the windshield of my Chevrolet Whiskey eyes and ashtray breath On a chert rock gravel road

What the hell did I do last night? That's the story of my life Like tryin' to remember words To a song nobody wrote

And it's sad and it's long and can't nobody sing along It's a southbound train, it's a whistle in the wind Ain't no one there to care where I've been I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again

I took a trip across the country from Montgomery Discovered I'd been wrong for so long I thought it was the fame and the glory and the money But all I've got to show is a damn song

And it's sad and it's long, can't nobody sing along It's a southbound train, it's a whistle in the wind There's no one there to sing to in the end I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again

And it's sad and it's long, can't nobody sing along It's a southbound train, it's a whistle in the wind There's no one there to care where I've been I'm hummin' on that lonesome song again

The mornin' sun made it's way Through the windshield of my Chevrolet Whiskey eyes and ashtray breath On a chert rock gravel road
