Pointless Nostalgic

Jamie Cullum

Ain't thinking 'bout love today Lost in the sunlight Walking down memory lane

Ain't thinking 'bout you today People from the past that I knew Are slowly slipping away Seems so long ago Since we were carefree

Photographs lost in time are all I see A pointless nostalgic-That's me That's me

Thoughts running round my head today Times from the past popping up where they're from I don't know Reminiscing my cares away Wishing I could go back and change the points that were low Till I've realised what life's meant to be

Photographs lost in time are all I see A pointless nostalgic; That's me That's me

Reminiscing my cares away Wishing I could go back and change the points that were low Till I've realised what life's meant to be

Photographs lost in time are all I see A pointless nostalgic; That's me That's me

It's all I'll ever be It's all I'll ever be Cause that's me It's all I'll ever be Cause that's me
