

She needs me

Jamie Lidell

All the things that we've been through just make it sweeter that she needs you she needs you in the mornin' just to cook her some eggs sometimes and she needs you in the afternoon just to give her little bit of that sweet afternoon love
and she needs you in the evening just to get a little more oh don't ever let her go don't ever let her go don't ever let this one go she's the sweetest thing you'll ever know oh
each time we look into each others eyes
with all the trouble that we've seen maybe in some way we never thought we'd
make it so far look at where we've been I was hopin' she would let me in for more than a cup of tea I wanted so much from the moment I met you and now i'm thanking the lord thanking the lord
you're still the sweetest thing I've
and every day
I wake up in the
with you on my pillow
I just count my blessings
I say oh!
she needs me
she wants me
every single day
she wants me in her life
