

Where D'You Go

Jamie Lidell

Where d you go
Why'd you leave
Why is it everywhere I look.
And I just can't see you at all

Where d you go
Why'd you leave
Why is it everywhere I look.
And I just can't see you at all

That's why I cry
That's why I cry
That's why I cry
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you

Still asking where d you go
Why'd you leave
Why is it everywhere I look.
And I just can't see you at all

Where d you go
Won't you stay
Why is it everywhere I look
And I just can't see you at all

That's why I cry
That's why I cry
That's why I cry
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you

Still asking whered you go

That's why I cry
That's why I cry
That's why I cry
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you
I'm gonna have to get along without you

Still asking whered you go
Why'd you leave
Why is it everywhere I look.
And I just can't see you at all

Where d you go
Won't you stay
Why is it everywhere I look.
And I just can't see you at all

Where'd you go
