

Have I Told You Lately That I Love You?

Jan Howard

Have I told you lately that I love you,
Could I tell you once again, somehow.
Have I told you how with heart and soul, that I adore you?
Well darling I'm telling you now!

This world would end, today if you should leave me;
I'm no good, without you, anyhow.....
My heart would break in two if you refused me,
Well darling, I'm telling you now!

How I told you lately that I miss you?
When the stars are shining in the sky.
Have I told you, how the nights are long, when you are not with me...
Well darling I 'm telling you now.

This world would end.....

Have I told you, when at night I'm sleeping?
Every dream I dream is yours somehow.
Have I told you how with heart and soul, that I adore you...
Well darling, I'm telling you now!
