Where No One Stands Alone

Jan Howard

Once I stood in the night with  ${\tt my}\ {\tt head}\ {\tt bowed}\ {\tt down}$

In the darkness as black as the sea

And my heart felt alone and I cried oh Lord don't hide your fac e from me

Hold my hand all the way every hour every day from here to the great unknown

Take my hand let me stand where no one stands alone

I may live like a queen in a palace so tall with great riches to call my own

But now there's not a thing in this whole wide world that's wor se than being alone

Hold my hand all the way...
