

Beautiful Lies

Jana Kramer

Surrounded by pieces
Of vows that were broken
Leaving me speechless
It's like I don't know you

Everything we built is falling down

Tell me I'm making this up
That this ain't for real
Take me back to the night I could feel
Like I was enough
And love was just blind
I'm not ready for the truth to see the light
Make it up, make it pretty, I don't mind
Tell me beautiful lies

Oh yeah

How did this happen?
I thought we were perfect
Never imagined
Feeling so worthless
I know I need to face it but I can't right now

Tell me I'm making this up
That this ain't for real
Take me back to the night I could feel
Like I was enough
When love was just blind
I'm not ready for the truth to see the light
Make it up, make it pretty, I don't mind
Tell me beautiful lies

Oh yeah
Go on and tell me those beautiful lies

Tell me I'm making this up
That this ain't for real
Take me back to the night I could feel
Like I was enough
When love was just blind
I'm not ready for the truth to see the light
Make it up, make it pretty, I don't mind
Dream it up, make it real, one more time
Tell me beautiful lies

Oh yeah
Please tell me those beautiful lies
