

So Cold

Janet Devlin

I miss you more and more each day
I'd let you know but you're not around to say
I miss you like I miss my youth
But gone are those days too
You left me without a warning
You left me without a word
You left me now I'm mourning the goodbye I never heard

I'd still sleep with the lights on
But I don't sleep anymore
I'd still sleep with the lights on
But I don't sleep now you're gone

You're too young to be sad they say
You're too young to be so cold
You're too young to be sad they say
You're too young to be so old

The doctor says I'll feel no pain
The colours fade turning all my blues to grey
I miss you like I miss my home
But it's gone now that I'm grown
Now all that's left are the melodies
From a song I'll never play
So I bathe inside these memories
Before the numb takes them away

I'd still sleep with the lights on
But I don't sleep anymore
I'd still sleep with the lights on
But I don't sleep now you're gone

You're too young to be sad they say
You're too young to be so cold
You're too young to be sad they say
You're too young to be so old

You're so young, you're so young
You're so young to be so old
You're so young, you're so young
You're so young to be so old

You're too young to be sad they say
You're too young to be so old
