Dmi                      B                      Dmi    B
Arms nailed down, are you telling me something?

Dmi                      B                      Dmi                                      B
Eyes turned out, are you looking for someone?

Dmi                      B    F   C

This is the one thing, the one thing that I know.

Dmi                      B                      Dmi                      B
Blood-stained brow, are dying for nothing?

Dmi                      B      Dmi                      B
Flesh and blood, is it so elemental?

Dmi                      B                      Dmi                      B
Blood-stained brow, He wasn't broken for nothing

Dmi                      B      Dmi                                      B
Arms nailed down, He didn't die for nothing.
