

after goodbye

Jasmine Thompson

I saw you at a coffee shop where we used to go
You looked good like you got some sun but you weren't alone
Six whole months later, I shouldn't be surprised
Guess I just never thought about what comes after
After goodbye

So caught up, tryna keep the peace, tryna end this right
Never once thought about when you would move on with life
You seem happier, I shouldn't be surprised
Guess I just never thought about what comes after
After goodbye

My
Thoughts have been racing
And now my
Hands won't stop shaking
Oh, why
Can't I just face the fact
There's no going back

Next time I will control myself if I see you out
I won't spiral into the mess that I am right now
Oh, make my day, baby, and that's why I got to lie
Guess I just never thought about what comes after
After goodbye

My
Thoughts have been racing
And now my
Hands won't stop shaking
Oh, why
Can't I just face the fact
That you're in my past

I saw you at coffee shop with your other half
I'm happy for you but that don't mean that I can't be sad
