

Again And Again

Jason Gray

Nobody can tell you how far you'll fall
When the bottom drops out underneath it all
And how easy you can lose your way
When dreams die and you're so afraid
And it's a long way down when the engine stalls

But I won't fear the crash
Death wasn't built to last
You're bringing all things back to life

So let my hope be born again
Let my dreams be born again
There's resurrection in Your hands, so
Let my whole life be born again
And again and again
And again and again

Just a kid, when You began a good work in me
I heard You say, "You won't quit until I'm complete"
It's written in the joy and pain, even when I feel the blaze
You make the ashes turn into lovely things

It never gets old to me
Hearing that song repeat
"Amazing Grace how sweet the sound"

So let my hope be born again
Let my dreams be born again
There's resurrection in Your hands, so
Let my whole life be born again
And again and again
And again and again

I've seen You making all things new
Turning every grave into a womb
I shouldn't be surprised it's what You do

So let my hope be born again
Let my dreams be born again
There's resurrection in Your hands, so
So let my hope be born again
Let my dreams be born again
There's resurrection in Your hands, so
Let my whole life be born again
And again and again
And again and again

Again and again
And again and again
