I Will Find A Way (The Song Of Emmanuel)

Jason Gray

At the end of this rundown tenement hall
Is the room of a girl I know
And she cowers behind all the dead bolt locks
Afraid of the outside world

How should I come to the one I love? I will find a way

Many thieves and collectors have used that door But they only brought her shame So she won't even open it anymore Still I will find a way

I could call out her name with love through the walls But condemnation is all she hears
I could break down the door and take her into my arms
But she might die from the fear

So how should I come to the one I love? I will find a way, I will find a way How should I come to the one I love? I will find a way

No hiding place ever kept her safe So she hides inside herself Now to reach her heart the only way Is to hide in there as well I will hide in there as well

She gave up on love waiting for a change But a change is coming soon 'Cause how could she not love the helpless babe Who is waking in her womb?

I found a way, I found a way...
She'll know I am coming before I am here
When she hangs her head she'll see me there
And then when I come she won't run away
All the beauty and joy will return to her face
And what of the loneliness? Now it is gone
Lost in the bond of a mother and son
Every sin that she suffered at the hands of men
Every single disgrace will be washed clean again
I will love her completely and when I am grown
I will carry her out of that tenement room
I am doing a new thing and soon you will see
I am coming among you and my name shall be Emmanuel, Emmanuel
I have come to take you home
