

Sparrows

Jason Gray

You can't add a single day by worrying
You'll worry your life away
Oh, don't worry your life away
You can't change a single thing by freaking out
It's just going to close you in
Oh, don't let the trouble win

You may feel alone
But you're not on your own

(Lalala Lalalala)
If He can hold the world, He can hold this moment
(Lalala Lalalala)
Not a field or flower escapes His notice
Oh, even the sparrow knows
He holds tomorrow
(Lalala Lalalala)
(Lalala Lalalala)

Lean in and it's hard to miss
Everything can change
When you make it His
Oh, He wants to carry it
Carefree in the care of God
When you let it go
You'll find that He's enough
Oh, you never leave His love

You don't walk alone

(Lalala Lalalala)
If He can hold the world, He can hold this moment
(Lalala Lalalala)
Not a field or flower escapes His notice
Oh, even the sparrow knows
He holds tomorrow

There's not a single star that's out of place
There's nothing broken He can't remake
If you long for hope when you're afraid
Oh look at the sparrow
Look at the sparrow

(Lalala Lalalala)
If He can hold the world, He can hold this moment
(Lalala Lalalala)
Not a field or flower escapes His notice
Oh, even the sparrow knows
He holds tomorrow
(Lalala Lalalala)
Even the sparrow knows
(Lalala Lalalala)
He holds tomorrow
