

Where We Go From Here

Jason Gray

You never say I told you so,
Even though you told me so,
You just say I am sorry that it hurts,
You forget what I've done wrong,
You can't more about movin' on,
Your grace dances circles around my words

It's not over even when it's over,
Even when the curtain falls or the lights
Fade to black and I'm afraid it's finished,
It's just beginning you say lift your head,
I'll dry your tears then I'll show you,
Where we go from here [x3]

Look to you as broken things
Put together, broken things
Just like it's was always in you plan,
As broken as I say I am,
You see me like broken cramps,
It's still colored beauty in your hands

It's not over even when it's over,
Even when the curtain falls or the lights
Fade to black and I'm afraid it's finished,
It's just beginning you say lift your head
I'll dry your tears then I'll show you
Where we go from here [x3]
(where we go, where we go)

Where [?]
Where suffering makes the standard,
Where the humble are the leaders,
And the wounded are the healers
[x2]

It's not over,
Even when it's over, yeah

It's not over even when it's over,
Even when the curtain falls or the lights
Fade to black and I'm afraid It's finished,
It's just beginning you say lift your head
I'll dry your tears then I'll show you
Where we go from here (where we go) [x3]
