

The King's Way

Jason Upton

There is a road
That leads to peace that leads to life
But few will follow
We're at the crossroad
Which way will we go

There is not today a more holy way
Than the steps that lead me to the cross
Where my will can't be the priority
And these crowns I've gained I count as loss
When I hear the spirit say
That this is the true King's way
