

Life on a Wire

Jason Walker

I'm standing at a crossroad in my mind
Brave but I feel just like it shout
Does anybody else
Live life on a wire like I got to
One torch in each hand and I'm scared too
How does anybody choose?
How does anybody choose?

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh

I don't want my life to flash before my eyes
It's only when you can't seem to decide
I'm holding it too close
Am I holding it too close?

But I am only one soul in the night
Morning will you show you light
I'm fallin'
But I just cannot wait to be released
I am bended at my knees
I'm burnin' on fire
Life on a wire

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh

Please don't let my heart be made of stone
I don't wanna live this life alone
It's never too late
It's never too late

But I am only one soul in the night
Morning will you show you light
I'm fallin'
But I just cannot wait to be released
I am bended at my knees
I'm burnin' on fire
Life on a wire
Oh, life on a wire
Oh, life on a wire
Life on a fire
On fire
Life on a wire
