

Hmmmmmmmm.....hey yea hey...hoooooowhooo....baby,

[Verse 1]

Kind of like a summer's breeze, you do exactly as you please, drop a brother to his knees just for fun.
I think it was the first of May, girl I can't forget the day, right then and there I knew you were the one.
Do you think that possibly, you could spend your life with me, cause girl this love is growing, and it's hotter than the sun.

[Chorus:]

I get a little bit crazy baby, everytime you call my name my heart beats a little bit faster, after, you are in my arms again.
Can't try to fight it, won't even try to hide it, emotions falling down like the rain, I can't find the words to explain it, ain't it, crazy how i fall, everytime you call my name.

[Verse 2]

It's kind of like a work of art, you shot an arrow through my heart, even though we're worlds apart I can't deny, it feels like your apart of me the finish and the start of me, girl you are the heart of me, and that's no lie, did I mention that I love you so, and I just want the world to know, if I could you know I would write your name across the sky.

[Chorus]

Crazy, crazy...
Evertime that your close to me, I lose control of my sanity, everynight, everyday, every word and you say, girl do you know you put a spell on me.

[Chorus]

Crazy,
Everytime you call my name,
I don't know what to do,
I'm so in love with you.
