

Gravity

Javier Colon

This ain't living, I can't feel a thing
I can't take it, what's wrong with me?
All I wanna do is sleep
Since you said we're over
Never thought I'd be the enemy
You were everything I'd ever hoped for
Used to be a time when you were mine, not anymore

Baby I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity
Baby I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity

You say what's meant to be will be
What if you're not, not meant for me?
Am I supposed to watch you leave?
Don't tell me it's over
Never thought I'd be the enemy
You were everything I'd ever hoped for
Used to be a time when you were mine, not anymore

So baby, I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity
Baby I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity

Now with every second that passes I try, try to survive
'Cause you were my life
Now I'm stuck on the ground when my heart wants to fly
There's no escaping gravity

Baby I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity
Baby I'm down on my knees
Hating every breath I breathe
I knew I'd let you down eventually
It's gravity, gravity
