

Yeah aw

I'm so tired of always being wrong
Sometimes I sit here wondering what I'd do if we moved on How did we get here our love was ever strong
Now all you wanna do is argue and I just want to write this song

So I'm going walkin' I keep on walkin' to anywhere but here
So I'm walkin'
I'm gonna keep on walkin' til demons disappear

You like to scream I never raise my voice
You say it's just instinctual we both know you have a choice ye ah
We used to say that never go to sleep upset
Well it's 2 AM and you're fast asleep
I guess we both now full of shit

So I'm going walkin' I keep on walkin' to anywhere but here
So I'm walkin'
I'm gonna keep on walkin' til skyline disappear

Let's make this perfectly clear I maybe walkin but not away
We both need a moment to breath before it's too late
And we regret the things we say
Tell you the truth I can never leave
You must have put something in your loving
The more I have the more I need
So baby this is normal it's just apart of being in love
People fight make up and fight again all the time
But tonight I had enough

So I'm going walkin' I'm gonna keep on walkin' to anywhere but here
So I'm walkin' alright said I keep on walkin keep on walkin'
I'm walkin' said I keep on walkin' ooo can't stop me from walking

I'm so tired of always being wrong yeah
