Jay Park

First, lock the door girl
Cuz this song is rated R
Focus now
Listen carefully baby to what I'm saying
Take off your t-shirt first
Take your pants off too
Don't take off your underwear
Leave your bra and panties on
I wanna burn you up a little more
Don't move and close your eyes

Imagine my tattoos touching your body
I'm standing here so keep looking at my body
Tonight, I wanna make your bed into an ocean
Back stroke
Front stroke
I wanna fall, I wanna fall into you

Oh no, if you get lonely
Turn this song on
But only you listen to it, only you

Oh This is for your ears only
You have to listen to it alone baby

Replay all night, all night
Replay all night, all night
Replay all night, all night
Until you get that feeling
Put this shit on REPLAY
