

I Believe in You

Jay Sean

Theres a place
You can run away and hide
Yeah
A form of pain
Girl if only for a while Life has been
Treating you so wrong
And I dont know if id have been that strong

So let me know baby
If theres anything you want ill be there
Let me know
If i can be the one you run and talk to
You should know
That I admire you for every strength that you have shown
Ill be right where you are

Cos I believe in you
No matter what Im by your side
I believe in you
And everythings gonna be alright
I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
Youll make it through
Cos I believe in you

Memories of your past will go with time
And fade away like the marks that own your skin
He never broke
The person that you are
Cos he never got to know the girl within no

So let me know baby
If theres anything you want ill be there
Let me know
If i can be the one you run and talk to
You should know
That I admire you for every strength that you have shown
Ill be right where you are

Cos I believe in you
No matter what Im by your side
I believe in you
And everythings gonna be alright
I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
Youll make it through
Cos I believe in you

Oh yeah

He was your cause and your cure
Of your heartache
For he was all that you knew
Ooh
Dont you ever believe that your ever alone
I will be there for you every step of the way

I believe in you
No matter what I'll be by your side
I believe in you
And everything's gonna be alright
I believe in you
And when it hurts I'll dry your eyes
We can make it through
Cos I believe in you

I believe in you [repeat]
