

Lullaby

Jaymay

Lullaby, my eyes are dry
But way down deep inside, I cry
For you, I weep tonight
Lullaby, lullaby, yeah
Lullaby, the moon's so high, shinin' bright
But inside she's the shy quiet type
Lullaby, lullaby

Basil growin' outside on my windowsill
Love is in the air but the air's so still
Call me from the street
Throw a pebble at my pane, I'm yours
To keep from goin' insane
I keep goin' insane

Lullaby, my eyes are dry
But way down deep inside, I cry
For you, I weep tonight
Lullaby, lullaby, yeah
Lullaby, the moon's so high, shinin' bright
But inside she's the shy quiet type
Lullaby, lullaby

Angel's fallen outside on my windowsill
Love is in the air but the air's so still
Call me from the street
Throw a rainbow at my pane, I'm yours
To keep from goin' insane
I keep goin' insane

Basil growin' outside on my windowsill
Love is in the air but the air's so still
Call me from the street
Throw a pebble at my pane, I'm yours
To keep from goin' insane
I keep goin' insane
