

I'm the Woman

Jeannie C. Riley

Ask me who I am and I will tell you
I'm a woman who belongs to her man
Ask me to be unfaithful I will shun you
I'm the woman who belongs to her man

Yes, I'm a woman who has a man that loves me
And I know tomorrow his love will still be strong
So please, don't ask me to abuse him
This woman can't do her good man wrong

Ask me who he is and I will tell you
He's the man who fills this woman's life
So please, don't ask me to forsake him
This woman is that man's wife

Yes, I'm a woman who has a man that loves me
And I know tomorrow his love will still be strong
So please, don't ask me to abuse him
This woman can't do her good man wrong
No, this woman can't do her good man wrong
