

Respect Your Dreams

Jedward

Give me a glimpse of bravery
Do what you gotta do forget reality
Bring on a new chapter
Go follow your heart
Don't you be afraid
Laugh the pressure off

And give yourself the space to grow
Step out from the dark shadows
Throw your fears aside today
Step into the light, free your soul

Respect your dreams
Go live your life
Don't write yourself off
Put up a fight, oh
Protect your heart
From those who hate
Respect your dreams
Its not to late

Whoa...

Respect your dreams
Go live your life
Don't write yourself off
Put up a fight, oh
Protect your heart
From those who hate
Respect your dreams
Its not to late

Can you tell me where's the dreamer
That I once knew
Who wouldn't give up
Who had the right attitude
Now I see you living in a daze
I'll do all I can to help you through this faze

Celebrate yourself why be someone else
Wash away regrets, this life ain't over yet
Quite flirting with the fear, oh don't you disappear
Just know your worthy of it all

I know you'll conquer the demons inside your head
Through the highs and lows, I know you'll find yourself
So don't you let the bad vibes spread
Oh, I wish you all the best

And give yourself the space to grow
Step out from the dark shadows
Throw your fears aside today
Step into the light, free your soul

Respect your dreams
Go live your life

Put up a fight oh
Protect your heart
From those who hate
Respect your dreams
Its not to late

Whoa...

Respect your dreams
Its not to late...
