

A Better Way

Jeff Black

I think this party's over looks like everybody's leaving there's a black car waiting but I'm walking home this evening all my friends are wondering I'm just so god damned happy sometimes my light shines so bright you have to turn away

see I told you I'd find a better way this time
see I told you don't you ever underestimate the blind
see I told you
I bet you thought
I'd thrown it all away
It's alright
f**k a bunch of broken hearted bullshit man I'm just getting started slipped out the side door stealing don't mean to get too heavy I paid the toll I'm on a roll and I'm on the bridge above the levee way down deep inside we go everybody wants to know but It's you right now I'm only about a mile away waiting for the light to change
