Oh what can I tell you now, Caroline
Should I hurt your feelings or keep on lyin'?
One thing leads to another and another
And another and another besides
You always know whenever I want to make love
And you always know all the changes I'm going through
Just as if you can read my mind
Caroline, you know everything I do
There just ain't no words to describe
How I feel inside for you.

Yet somewhere out there Waitin' on a wonder You'll lend wings to my words Somewhere when the band is gone And the music of my song Is just right for lovers.

You're what I want more than anything else
I love you - yes I do - but I know when I'm all by myself
Nothin' is real but my feelings and desires for you
And everything looks like some sort of scenery
Stored in an empty theatre
With stars on the ground - fences in the sky
And tears in the curtain of time
Oh what can I tell you, my Caroline.

Except yet somewhere out there Waitin' on a wonder You'll lend wings to my words Somewhere when the band is gone And the music of my song Is just right for lovers.

Caroline, your lovin' keeps me rollin'
Rollin' all the time, rollin' all the time
Baby - somewhere out there
You really roll me
Roll me away
Baby - somewhere out there
You roll me, roll me away.

And when the melody makes me surrender Dark eyed girl, I always remember That you love me somewhere out there You really love me in time to the music How you love me wildly in my heart Girl, you love me You roll me away.

You always fill my heart with wonder You always fill my soul with love You always fill my lips with kisses You always fill my eyes with tears.

It's like a wind from the other side of the world Like a far off pack of hounds

Sounds like a whole universe - throbbin' with life I get so hypnotized in the lights
Just like the gaze of a mantis
Why even Atlantis sank beneath
The waves in a day and a night
Oh, in a day and a night I could write
You a symphony
It would be just like a bird
And carry my love over the mountains.

Cause somewhere out there Waitin' on a wonder You'll lend wings to my words Somewhere when the band is gone And the music of my song Is just right for lovers.

You always fill my heart with wonder You always fill my soul with love You always fill my lips with kisses You always fill my eyes with tears.

Cry Caroline.
