

Shantytown Carnival

Jehro

Tonight is free, tonight the streets
Echo the sounds of the carnival
Run will flow, crowd will grow
Filin' the streets as drums start the beat
We got rhythm strong
Burnin' in our thighs
Celebrate all night long 'cause we're alive
A rich man come, shantytowns & slums
Is where you find girls and grindin' drums
See her sway she come his way
Swinging' her hips just melt all else away
Fire burns behind velvety eyes
Slim silky waist can mesmerize
This stranger gone astray in dark alleyways
Chase her through the crowd
Drums beatin' loud, dance like a blade
Each move she makes, he shudders with a start
She's cut into his heart, the crowd's pressin' in
They dance face to face
Wa all cheer and grin, when they embrace
