

Bad Times Roll

Jelly Roll

Hello hello hello hello
I ain't heard from you in so damn long
Hello hello hello hello
Pick up yo phone
I ain't heard from you in so damn long

Here we go
She's about to trip again
Don't he know
That his little girl's listening
Heard he got another kid up in Michigan
He don't deserve that house
He's livin' in
Man that's fake shit
I'm over that
Cause the shit that we spit
Is so real
That it gives them bitches
Cold chills
And we did shit
With no deal
Only rap about what I really do
Ice cold game
I'm really smooth
I could pull yo bitch
In tennis shoes
Turn her bed to a
Swimming pool
I'm confident like a skinny dude
My fat ass is white trash
Give me the shine of a lifetime
There's a slight chance
I might pass
I'm insane, I'm fucked up
My city call me the joker
These felonies bought me tough luck
But I'll still arrive with that toaster
Don't worry about the past
It'll lie to yo ass
Stay in yo lane
Don't be driving too fast
Know who I am no trying to mask
Only enemy I had was the guy in the glass

Coke snorters pill poppers go to rehab
But what about all of the villains
What do we have
Maybe we can find a place
That we can get away
We deal with this every day
Where do all the bad guys go
Where they can let the bad times roll
Where they can let the bad times roll

I said I'ma get it

Anything I ever said I done did
I'm from the streets
And I'll never forget it
Reason why I keep my head on a swivel
Let me be plotting
You just keep watching
I expected this to come when we popping
Just know my love for some of those yonders
Won't be no stopping
Once they start chopping
That's on my mama
Don't want no problems
I get money, I'm cooling
Being a father
Raising my daughter
Please don't make me get foolish
They mad cause they lil' bitch choosin'
They mad cause you really got to it
They mad so they blame grown men
For the shit they don't have
And they full of excuses
Finally got to leave the streets alone
And I did it all with a microphone
Lotta hard work lot of nights alone
Did what I had to do to provide a home
Ducked the law like dodgeball
For the outlaws and the eyeballs
Big city folks and the hole in the wall
Roll one up come smoke
With ya dawg

Coke snorters pill poppers go to rehab
But what about all of the villains
What do we have
That we can get away
Where they can let the bad times roll
Hello hello hello hello
I ain't heard from you in so damn long
Hello hello hello hello
Pick up yo phone
I ain't heard from you in so damn long
But what about all of the villains
What do we have
That we can get away
