

I Need You

Jelly Roll

Father forgive me
For I know I have sinned

Close my eyes and I pray
Cause I feel the sky's falling on me (The sky's falling on me)
And the wall's caving in and I feel like I just cannot breath (Like I just cannot breath)
And I feel like (And I feel like)
I may lose my mind
This is real life (real life)
Can anyone hear my cries (cries)

Will you forgive me? (Will you forgive me?)
I can't shake this depression and I'm always stressing
And nobody feels me

Baby I need you (Baby I need you)
Baby I need you (Baby I need you)
No more bargaining back and forth
Arguing's what we agreed to

If I fall out into space
Will my problems finally fade?

I need you
I keep rolling and smoking
And blowing to deal with these problems (Deal with these problems)
I keep drinking and popping these pills but it never resolves 'em (Ne ver resolves 'em)
And I feel like (And I feel like)
It's my time to bloom
This is real life (Real life)
I'm 'bout to explode (Explode)

Will you forgive me? (Will you forgive me?)
I can't shake this depression and I'm always stressing
And nobody feels me

Baby I need you (Baby I need you)
Baby I need you (Baby I need you)
No more bargaining back and forth
Arguing's what we agreed to

If I fall out into space
Will my problems finally fade?
If I fall out into space
Will my problems finally fade?

I need you
