

No Worries

Jelly Roll

Let that motherfucker roll
We been moving coast to coast
We been rolling doing shows
Let it (go)
It still feels like I'm dreaming
Pinch myself, I can't believe it
It's 6 o' clock in the evening
And I'm (drunk)

Man we must be buzzing
To think that we came from nothing
To think that we came from hustling yeah
It was never for money
The fact that it's finally coming
Is just a bonus so fuck it, yeah

We still rolling like chariots
Still smoking asparagus
Moments, I still cherish them
Never beef with wannabe comedians, hilarious
Daddy told me always put the horse before the carriages

We ain't not worried, no not at all
Where you come from, where I come from
You expect to fall

Pour me a shot, roll me a joint, let's reminisce
Back to the times when we ain't have no pots to piss
Gun firing, sun rising, junkies calling
Smoke flying, it's hard to drive, it's fo fucking foggy
Blue lights flashing, police harassing, that's the usual
Somewhere in the madness I find the chaos is beautiful
Faith the size of mustard seeds, make a mountain moveable
My father said pills too hard to swallow are still chewable
Feel like I'm delusional, the truth is irrefutable
Undisputable, the king of therapeutic musicals
I guess it's starting to pay off
It has to do with the fact that we never take no days off

We ain't not worried, no not at all
Where you come from, where I come from
You expect to fall
(We ain't not worried, no not at all
We ain't not worried, no not at all)
We ain't not worried, no not at all
Where you come from, where I come from
