

Ain't Loved You Long Enough

Jennifer Rush

I was chasing broken dreams
Always one step out of reach
A revelation made me stop
'Cause I ain't loved you long enough

As I look into your eyes
See our lives go crashing by
I shed a tear for the time we've lost
I ain't loved you long enough

All my life I wanna cherish every moment
Of my life with you

So when my time has come
And the light it calls me home
I'll say to God "leave me here on earth"
'Cause I ain't loved you long enough

All my live I wanna cherish every moment
Of my life with you

I was chasing broken dreams
Always one step out of reach
A revelation made me stop
I ain't loved you long enough

As I look into your eyes
See our lives go crashing by
I shed a tear for times we've lost
'Cause I ain't loved you long enough

So when my time has come
And the light it calls me home
I'll say to God "leave me here on earth"
'Cause I ain't loved him long enough

Never loved someone so much
But I ain't loved you long enough.
